Welcome to ATVLounge.com, my name is Ryan and I am the webmaster. Just to give you a little history on our site, we launched it in Feb 2008. Our goal is to provide a site that brings together all ATV/Dirtbike riders across the world, and have a place where they can chat and meet new people. ATVLounge.com is not owned by any corporate sponsors, or dealers, its just 1 of 2 websites that I have put together to support my favorite recreational activity. The other site I run is www.stjoepark.com which provides information about St. Joe Park in Missouri.

During the next few months I anticipate more and more visitors everyday, especially in our forums section. Another cool feature of our site is the free listings section. What ever you have that you might want to sell, feel free to post it there. Don't waste your money posting on sites that charge you when you can post it here for free.

Over time you will also see another feature added to our site that will allow users to share maps, using google technology. We used similar mapping software on our other site, and I think this should go over real well here.

Finally, I want to say thanks for checking our site. As always I am open to suggestions, and they usually get implemented. So send me an email at webmaster@atvlounge.com if you have any questions or suggestions and I will get back to you a.s.a.p. Thanks, Ryan at atvlounge.com
